Objectives of the program:

The seminar's major goal is to teach students about how to identify and address the unique challenges and opportunities that women face in the entrepreneurial world. By understanding the impact of gender on entrepreneurial development, we can create a more level playing field for women entrepreneurs and allow them to reach their full potential.

Topics covered:

Challenges: A presentation on the challenges faced by women entrepreneurs might discuss the gender gap in access to funding, the lack of female role models in entrepreneurship, and the challenges of balancing work and family life.

Opportunities: An article on the opportunities for women entrepreneurs might highlight the growing number of women-led startups, the increasing availability of resources for female entrepreneurs, and the potential for women to disrupt traditional industries.

Gender stereotypes: A discussion on the role of gender stereotypes in entrepreneurship might explore how these stereotypes can discourage women from starting businesses and how they can impact the way that women entrepreneurs are perceived.

Gender diversity: An article on the importance of gender diversity in the entrepreneurial ecosystem might discuss the benefits of having a diverse range of perspectives and experiences in the startup world.

Outcome:

Students were able to identify and address the unique challenges that women face in the entrepreneurial world. Students were able to understand the opportunities for women entrepreneurs and were able to understand gender biodiversity in the entrepreneurial ecosystem.
