It sounds like the management, principal, staff and students of VNIPS celebrated a "Freshers party" in the college premises. The event took place in the college auditorium, and all the staff and students were invited to participate. The Programme likely included various activities and entertainment for the students, and it was concluded with a vote of appreciation.

The principal, Dr.P.Umadevi, congratulated the winners of different activities and delivered a speech regarding their future. This type of event is a common tradition in many educational institutions to welcome and integrate new students into the college community and provide them with a memorable experience.

Republic Day is celebrated to honor the day when the Constitution of India came into effect on January 26, 1950. This event marked India's transition from a British colonial dominion to a sovereign republic. Republic Day is a significant national holiday in India, celebrated with patriotic fervor through parades, cultural events, and ceremonies across the country. It serves as a reminder of the values and principles enshrined in the Indian Constitution and the country's democratic heritage.

All Teaching, Non-Teaching Staff and Students were participated actively. We had conducted cultural activities like Kho-Kho, Singing, Running competitions. Our Principal Dr. P. Uma devi gave best suggestions to the students for their life goals and achievements. Principal and Vice-Principal distributed Prizes to the game winners and runners.

The Management, Principal, staff and students of VNIPS celebrated "Women's Day" in the college premises. All the staff and students are invited to take part in the program organized in the college auditorium. Dr.P.Umadevi spoke about the importance and respect to be given to the women on international women's day. In our India women are given respect over thousands of years and our culture is respecting women in all aspects. The students of the college gave a tribute to the staff. The purpose of celebrating women's day is to raise awareness about the status and dignity of women.
