6.3.1 The Institution has effective performance for Performance Appraisal system for teaching and Non-teaching staff

Viswanadha Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences prioritizes Institution Employee welfare and has implemented various statutory welfare measures for both teaching and non-teaching staff.

The focus on Monetary and non-monetary measures personal & professional growth shows a commitment to employee satisfaction rather than just profit. This approach can foster a positive work environment and enhance employee well being.

Compliance with Govt. regulation necessitates and Monetary & Non-Monetary measures and certain Institute measures:

1. The teaching faculty and non teaching staff are entitled to EPF facilities.
2. Medical and Maternity leave are employed for both teaching and non-teaching staff members as required.
3. Faculty and staff receive salary during marriage leaves and maternity leaves.
4. Nursing mothers among the faculty/staff enjoy flexible working hours.
5. Financial assistance is provided for Hospital expenses and accommodations from collected funds or special funds when required.
6. Interest free hand loans are available to staff members on a repayable basis, either partially or in full, based on individual preferences and convenience. It is pleasure to say that our Institution provides such comprehensive support to the faculty and staff.
7. Offering moral emotional support during personal or professional crisis can significantly impact their well-being and productivity.
8. Additionally providing research support through the allowances, Library facilities and infrastructure can facilitate academic growth.
9. Covering registration fees and travel expenses for conferences and workshops enables professional development and reinstating staff after study leaves encourages continuous learning.

10. Finally having a canteen on campus ensure convenience and access to food for all.
11. Transportation facility is available for both teaching and non teaching faculty at subsidized cost
12. Our Institution also has numerous of cells out of those the imperative cells are Research and development, Intellectual property right cell, Entrepreneurship development and Internal quality assurance cell. These are very useful to increases the knowledge of our staff members.

These initiatives create a nurturing environment for faculty, staff and their families.

Faculty Performance Appraisal system.

The faculty performance appraisal system involves 3 key steps:

- The internal quality assurance cell (IQAC) prepares a self appraisal form based on UGC-norms. Assessing various parameters like examination results, student feedback, teaching methods, research publications, Conference participation and co-curricular duties. Faculty members submit this form at the end of each year.
- Students provide feedback on courses and teachers throughout the year. Principal analyzes this feedback.
- Principal provide recommendations based on performances appraisal reports influencing the management decision. Communication occurs through one on one interaction and departmental meetings.

In conclusion, the faculty performance appraisal system at Viswanadha Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences is a dynamic and inclusive process aimed at fostering continuous improvement and growth among our esteemed faculty members.
